chasers of domestic are holding off for the new clip, which it is believed will come in at cheaper rates than the old wool now in market. Foreign is now in moterate supply, and but little inquired for at present. Importers, however, are firm in their high demands.

FAMILY MARKETING.

RETAIL PRICES OF FARM PRODUCE IN WASHINGTON The recent rains have had their due effect upon grow ing produce, and the market already gives evidence of the good they have done. Squashes and celery have disap-peared, but water crosses, radishes, asparagus and salad are most abundant and tolerably cheap. Soaked green peas have been for some time in market, and during the last week peas in pod, from Savannah, have made their appearance, but are very poor things.

Fish exhibits some change. Terrapin, pike, pickerell, suckers, sunfish, and indeed all winter fish have disappeared; but mackerel, shad, cod and hallibut were neve so plentiful or so cheap. Meat is higher, though it should not be so as there i plenty of it in the city. Poultry and game exhibit no marked change. Cysters are not as good nor lobsters as lively as usual; crabs are not to be seen. Butter is cheap and so are eggs. Bermuda potatoes have made their ap-

WATCHARD. surfaive. The Congress spring, as is well known, is the spring which, during sixty, three years past, has built up the reputation of Saratoga, yet some have confounded the name of the spring with that of the place, thus affording the opportunity for swindlers to foist worthless articles upon the public on the strength of the repu ation obtained by the Congress spring, in a long series of years. Their jury thus inflicted upon the public and ourselves is double, for on lathing these spurious articles, and finding either no effect or injurbane effects from their use, they in future refuse the genuine Congress water, supposing that they have already tried it. i. i. not a sufficient guarantee that it is in bottles and boxes, bearing our connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the pursue and boxes are greedly bought up by connect felters for the congress water; buy only of those you can rely on—Congress water, viz.; "Congress Weter—C. & W." If without these words, it is a valueless, during the constant and the confidence of the common Seidlitz powders of the abops. That it is impossible to form Congress water artificially, we have the authority of the celebrated chemist, sir flumphrey Day, as follows:—'It is impossible to recombine the ingredients so as to make an article of equal quarity, the effects of which will be the same as the natural water. On writing us, we will send you a list of prices, sizes and packages; and by ordering from us direct, enclosing draft of the amount ordered, yo
